Dear Roger and Holly,

It was with great sadness that we at Wisdom received the news of Lama Zopa Rinpoche's passing. Rinpoche is an inspiration and a guiding force for so many dharma activities around the world and this is especially true for Wisdom Publications.

Rinpoche has spent his life spreading the teachings of the Buddha around the world. Through His dedication and hard work, Lama Zopa Rinpoche contributed to spread the Dharma and benefit as many sentient beings locally and internationally. Rinpoche is known for his compassionate nature and his ability to connect with people from all walks of life. Rinpoche's great kindness and vast activities, always imbued with bodhichitta, which remain as a shining example and a light on the path for us all to follow.

TNSA joins with everyone around the world in mourning our loss, while offering our condolences to the family and his close friends.

We are praying for Rinpoche rebirth in a place where he can be quickly recognise and be of most benefit to sentient beings.

Yours Sincerely,

for Tibetan National Sports Association

Tenzin Rinchen Lama (Mr.)
