Dear Roger,

I have learned with profound sadness that Ven. Lama Zopa Rinpoche began his meditation this morning in the Kopan Monastery in Nepal.

In my heart is the memory of His precious teachings, His immense loving kindness, His tireless altruism, His empathy, His smile.

I had been linked to Ven. Lama Zopa Rinpoche by a deep and fraternal friendship since when, as children, we left Tibet invaded by China and found refuge in India where we were fellow students for many years.

We had recently met on my birthday at Namgyal Monastery School in Dharamshala. It had been an opportunity to remember the affection that united us and how much Ven. Lama Zopa Rinpoche had done for the diffusion of the Buddhist Dharma in the world by creating a vast network of study and meditation centers. Ven. Lama Zopa and His master Ven. Lama Yeshe were amazing teachers that spread the Buddhist Dharma and the tradition of Lama Tzong Khapa all over the world, benefiting countless human beings.

Dear friend, I feel your same sadness and I join you in the prayers with the wish that Ven. Lama Zopa Rinpoche may soon return to us and be of help to all sentient beings again.

Ven. Lama Thamthog Rinpoche,

Abbot of the Namgyal Monastery of Dharamshala and spiritual guide of Ghe Pel Ling of Milan, of Phendelling Vietnam, of Ghe Pel Ling Canarias and of the Tenzin Cio Ling Center of Sondrio,

and all the students
