*Prayers for the Swift and Unmistaken Return of Kyabje Thubten Zopa Rinpoche
Mahabodhi Stupa, Bodhgaya*

Compiled on the Basis of Advice from His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama.

“I make a humble request to the FPMT family:
Please pray and dedicate
for Rinpoche’s true and unmistakable reincarnation to return as quickly as possible in a place where the reincarnation can be very quickly recognized.
Please pray the reincarnation
can complete all the studies as soon as possible and resume carrying out the legacy of Rinpoche’s past life
and therefore be of the most benefit to sentient beings.
May this reincarnation be able to offer extensive benefit to the world and each one of us with Dharma practice and teaching in the same way as the past life inspired us.
May the teachings of Buddha
and all the other holy activities of Rinpoche’s organization become of the greatest benefit to all mother sentient beings.”

1. Mantra To Increase the Power of Recitation

TADYATHĀ / OM DHARE DHARE BHANDHARE SVĀHĀ (7x)

2. The Noble Sutra Remembering the Three Jewels

In Sanskrit: ārya ratnatraya anusmṛtisūtra

In Tibetan: ’phags pa dkon mchog rjes su dran pa’i mdo

Homage to the Omniscient One.

Purified and Consummate, Victorious, Virtuous and Transcendent, Thus-Gone, Foe-Destroying, Entirely Perfect Buddha, Full of Wisdom, the Blissfully Proceeding, the Knower of the World, Charioteer and Subduer of Beings, the Unsurpassable and Teacher of Gods and Humans: such is Buddha, Victorious, Virtuous and Transcendent. He who is Thus-Gone exemplifies the merit which is his cause. In him, no root of virtue is ever worn away. Through his manifold patience, he is excellently beautiful. He is the treasure-ground of merit, adorned with the tokens of Enlightenment. He is graced with the flowers of the marks of Buddhahood. All he does is timely and opportune and nothing inharmonious mars the sight of him. True joy, indeed, he gives to those who open up their hearts to him in faith. Through the brilliance of his wisdom, he is unconfounded and against his power, there is no victory.

He is the Teacher of all living beings, the Father of all Bodhisattvas, the King of all Supreme Ones. He is the guide for those who journey to the City Beyond Affliction. His wisdom is unbounded, his assurance is beyond imagination. His speech is altogether pure, well tuned and sweet to hear. Gazing on him, one is never sated; his body is beyond compare.

By the realm of desire, he is unstained and by the realm of form, he is wholly uncontaminated; he is not mingled with the formless. He is altogether free from misery, and from the aggregates, he is utterly and altogether liberated. The elements have no hold on him; he has mastery over the sense powers. All his bonds are completely severed and from all pains he is perfectly and totally released. No craving does he have, he has passed beyond the Stream. Perfect is his wisdom and in the wisdom of the Buddhas past, present and to come, he has made his dwelling. In nirvana, where all suffering is transcended, he does not abide; his abode is on the summit of perfection, whence he perceives all living beings. Such are the sublime qualities that are the greatness of the Buddha, Victorious, Virtuous and Transcendent.

The sacred Doctrine is righteous in the outset, righteous in the middle, righteous in the end; in its meaning, excellent and in its words and syllables, likewise. It is integral and unalloyed; it is all sufficing, altogether pure and purifying.

Well spoken is this Dharma by the Victorious, Virtuous and Transcendent. It is a perfect way of seeing and is devoid of flaws; it is perennial and leads us onward. To see this Dharma is to fulfil one's purpose; it produces in the wise, the wisdom all-distinguishing. The Dharma spoken by the Victorious, Virtuous and Transcendent is shown to be well-tempered to the instructions and to the needs of all. It drives one from samsara and causes one to go to perfect Buddhahood. It is free from contradiction and in it, all is summarised. It is to be relied upon totally; it is a cutting of the root.

The Sangha of the Mahayana comprises those who have well entered, wisely entered, entered with straightforwardness and aptitude. Right it is to join one's hands before them, and right to make prostrations. They are the glorious field of merit. They are the perfect recipient of gifts; they are the objects of offering; everywhere and always, they are the objects worthy of all offering.

1. The Request

Then Vajradhara, ever glorious,
Supreme subduer of the hard to tame,
The hero conquering the triple world,
The vajra lord and master of all secrets, (1)

With eyes wide open like white lotuses,
His face just like a lily in full bloom,
While shaking in his hand repeatedly
A vajra of the highest excellence—(2)

Accompanied by countless Vajrapāṇis,
With features such as fierce, turbulent brows,
Subduers of the hard to tame, heroes,
Appearing with heroic, hideous forms, (3)

Brandishing in their hands their mighty vajras,
The tips of which emit intensive light,
Great benefactors to all living beings
Through skill, through insight, and through great compassion, (4)

With pleased and happy attitudes, with joy,
Their bodies those of wrathful deities,
Protectors who assist the buddhas' deeds,
Their bodies bowing reverentially—(5)

Paid homage to the true awakened one,
Protector, Blessed One, Tathāgata.
And joining his two palms respectfully,
He said before the lord the following: (6)

‘O omnipresent lord, for my well-being,
With due concern for me and for my sake,
That I may reach complete awakening
Upon the basis of Illusion’s Net; (7)

And for the sake of every living being—
Sunk deep into the mud of ignorance,
Their thoughts disturbed by various afflictions—
So that they may obtain the highest fruit, (8)

May you—the most supreme awakened one,
The Blessed One, the world’s guru, and teacher,
Who knows the great samaya’s reality,
Aware of wishes and abilities—(9)

Reveal to us the great name chanting of
The wisdom body of the Blessed One,
The great uṣṇīṣa, master of all speech,
The self-arising wisdom emanation, (10)

The wisdom deity called Mañjuśrī;
These names with meaning both profound and vast;
Of great significance; unmatched; serene;
With goodness at their start, middle, and end; (11)

Proclaimed by buddhas of the eons past,
And to be taught by buddhas yet to come;

And taught not once but time and time again
By all the buddhas of the present age; (12)

Which were respectfully recited in Illusion's Net, the tantra most supreme,
By multitudes of mighty Vajrapāṇis,
The joyous guardians of secret mantras. (13)

Just this I shall uphold with firm resolve,
Until I reach my final liberation,
So that I may become, O great protector,
The bearer of the buddhas' every secret; (14)

And this I shall reveal to living beings
According to each one's capacity,
In order that afflictions may be quelled,
So ignorance may fully be dispelled.' (15)

With this request to the Tathāgata,
The master of all secrets, Vajrapāṇi—
His body bowed, his palms politely joined—
Then stood before the lord devotedly. (16)

2. The Reply

And so the Blessed One, lord Śākyamuni,
The best of men, the fully awakened one,
Extending from his mouth his handsome tongue,
A tongue unmatched in both its breadth and length, (17)

Displaying a gentle smile to living beings—
A smile that fills the threefold world with light;
That tames the enemy, the four Māras;
That ends unwanted birth in all three forms—(18)

His voice melodious, like that of Brahmā,
Completely filling all the triple world,
Replied as follows to the lord of secrets,
To Vajrapāṇi, strongest of the strong: (19)

‘That you, abounding in supreme compassion
And aiming to assist all living beings,
Are willing and prepared to hear from me
This evil-quelling, purifying chanting—(20)

The chanting of the names, so filled with meaning,
Of Mañjuśrī’s embodiment of wisdom—
How truly excellent, O Vajradhara;
How excellent of you, O Vajrapāṇi! (21)

And so I shall, O master of all secrets,
Reveal just that to you most splendidly.
With single-minded focus, listen well!’
‘How excellent!’ responded Vajrapāṇi,
‘So truly excellent, O Blessed One.’ (22)

Embodiments of emanating buddhas,
The final realization of all moments,
Who knows each moment's object for all minds, (134)

And manifesting for the sake of beings
With means derived from varied vehicles,
Gone forth by way of all three vehicles,
Remaining in the single vehicle's fruit, (135)

With purified afflictive spheres at heart,
Annihilating every karmic sphere,
Arrived atop dry land from flooding oceans,
Emerged from yoga's perilous dark grove, (136)

Released from general, minor, and complete
Afflictions and their latent tendencies;

With insight, means, and foremost empathy;
Achieving fruitful aims for living beings; (137)

Abiding object-free through all perceptions,
With consciousness as object, with cessation,
With every being the object of his mind,
With knowledge that's the mind of all the buddhas, (138)

Residing in the mind of every being;
Having become their minds' equality;
And satisfying the mind of every being;
He is, for every being, great inner joy; (139)

Confusion-free regarding points of doctrine,
Completely free from error in all its forms,
His thinking free from doubt, his object threefold,
His object all, three properties by nature, (140)

Throughout three times, the content of five skandhas,
Discerning clearly each and every moment,
Awakening in but a single moment,
His basic nature equal to all buddhas, (141)

With body bodiless, the best of bodies,
With realization of the peak of bodies,
Displaying his form in every possible way,
He is the greatest stone, the precious gem; (142)

10. The Wisdom of Performing Actions

What all the perfect buddhas are to know,
The buddhas' unsurpassed awakening,
Devoid of syllables, yet born of mantra,
Arising from Great Mantra's threefold family, (143)

The father to the meaning of all mantras,
The greatest bindu, void of syllables,
With five great syllables, great empty one,
A hundred syllabled, devoid of bindu, (144)

Endowed with every form, yet free from form,
Supporting half of half of sixteen bindus,
Transcending every grouping, void of members,
Sustaining dhyāna's fourth and final peak, (145)

Aware of dhyāna's each and every aspect,
With knowledge of samādhis' types and families,
The best of bodies—body of samādhi,
The sovereign king of all enjoyment bodies, (146)

The best of bodies—emanation body,
The heir to emanations of the buddhas,
With varied emanations everywhere,
While benefiting all, however needed, (147)

The sovereign of the gods, the god of gods,
Asura lord, the ruler of immortals,
The king of deities, the gods' guru,
The highest lord of pramathas, Pramatha, (148)

Emerged from cyclic life's imposing forest;
The single teacher; guru for all beings;
In every well-known world, in all directions,
The eminent bestower of the Dharma; (149)

Concealed by armour made of loving-kindness;
Well shielded by the shield of empathy;
With wisdom sword in hand, with bow and arrow;
Concluding war with ignorance and kleśas; (150)

The māras' enemy and tamer, hero,
Eliminating threats from all four māras,
Defeating all the armies of the māras,
A guide for living beings, the perfect buddha, (151)

Deserving homage, worthy of respect,
Deserving reverence, always honourable,
Deserving worship, worthy of regard,
The highest guru, ever venerable, (152)

Traversing all three worlds in just one stride,
His step extending past the bounds of space,
With knowledge of the three, well-versed, and pure,
With sixfold higher knowledge and recall, (153)

The bodhisattva and mahā-sattva,
With power great, transcending worldly life,
Perfected by his excellence of insight,
Now unified with insight's highest nature, (154)

The whole, aware of self, aware of other,
For, fit for all, he is the best of men;
Surpassing all to which he is compared,
Supreme most lord of knowing and what's known, (155)

The foremost master of imparting Dharma,
Who shows the meaning of the fourfold seal,
The most revered amongst all living beings
Engaged in going forth on all three paths, (156)

With glory purified by ultimate truth,
Most fortunate within the threefold world,

The celebrated source of all endowments,
Supreme among the glorious, Mañjuśrī. (157)

11. Praise for the Wisdom of the Five Tathāgatas
Homage to you, boon granter, best of vajras;
O summit of existence, homage to you;
Homage to you, whose source is emptiness;
O Buddha's awakening, homage to you; (158)

O passion of the buddhas, homage to you;
Desire of the buddhas, I pay you homage;
O love of every buddha, homage to you;
The joy of all the buddhas, I pay you homage; (159)

O smile of every buddha, homage to you;
The laugh of all the buddhas, I pay you homage;
O speech of every buddha, homage to you;
The heart of all the buddhas, I pay you homage; (160)

Arisen from non-being, homage to you;
Homage to you, arisen from the buddhas;
Arisen from the sky, homage to you;
Homage to you, born of pristine wisdom; (161)

O net of illusion, homage to you;
Homage to you, the buddhas' spectacle;
Homage to you, the everything of all;
O body of wisdom, homage to you! (162)

Then Vajradhara, ever glorious,
Most pleased and satisfied, with folded palms,
Prostrated to the Buddha, noble guard,
The Blessed One, the lord Tathāgata; (163)

And with a host of other Vajrapāṇis—
Of varied forms, the lords of guhyakas,
Sublime protectors, noble wrathful kings—
He then exclaimed this effervescent praise: (164)

Protector, we rejoice! How excellent!
How excellent what you have clearly taught!
Through you our lofty aim has been achieved,
Which leads to true and full awakening; (165)

And so the aims of helpless mundane beings,
Who seek the fruits of perfect liberation.
Just this taught in the Māyājāla is
The noble path that leads to excellence: (166)

With largeness, vastness, and profundity,
With meaning great, achieving beings' aims,
Just this comprises every buddha's sphere,
Just this is taught by all awakened ones. (167)

This concludes the Supreme Chanting of the Names of the Blessed One Mañjuśrī, the Wisdom Deity. It was extracted from the noble Net of Illusion, a mahāyoga tantra in sixteen thousand parts, from its chapter on the net of samādhi. It was spoken by the Blessed One Śākyamuni, the Tathāgata.

4. The Innermost Essence of the Ārya Mañjuśrī Tantra

In the language of India: Ārya-mañjuśrī-tantra-cittaḥ

In the language of Tibet: Phag pa jam päl gyü kyi yang nying

In the English language: The Innermost Essence of the Ārya Mañjuśrī Tantra

*I prostrate to the youthful Mañjuśrī!

In this way, to the Bhagavān Buddha:

The wisdom body, self-arisen;

The stainless, sole eye of wisdom;

The brilliant light of wisdom—

ARAPACANAYA TE NAMAḤ

Homage to you, the wisdom body itself.

Thus it was explained by all the complete buddhas.*

The Perfect Expression of the Ultimate Names of the Bhagavān, the Wisdom Being Mañjuśrī, as proclaimed by the Tathāgata Śākyamuni, is complete.

6. King of Prayers

I bow down to the youthful Arya Manjushri!

You lions among humans,
Gone to freedom in the present, past and future
In the worlds of ten directions,
To all of you, with body, speech, and sincere mind, I bow down.

With the energy of aspiration for the bodhisattva way,
With a sense of deep respect,
And with as many bodies as atoms of the world,
To all you buddhas visualized as real, I bow down.

On every atom are buddhas numberless as atoms,
Each amidst a host of bodhisattvas,
And I am confident the sphere of all phenomena
Is entirely filled with buddhas in this way.

With infinite oceans of praise for you,
And oceans of sound from the aspects of my voice,
I sing the breathtaking excellence of buddhas,
And celebrate all of you gone to bliss.

Beautiful flowers and regal garlands,
Sweet music, scented oils, and parasols,
Sparkling lights and sublime incense,
I offer to you victorious ones.

Fine dress and fragrant perfumes,
Sandalwood powder heaped high as Mount Meru,
All wondrous offerings in spectacular array,
I offer to you victorious ones.

With transcendent offerings peerless and vast,
With profound admiration for all the buddhas,
With strength of conviction in the bodhisattva way,
I offer and bow down to all victorious ones.

Every harmful action I have done
With my body, speech, and mind
Overwhelmed by attachment, anger, and confusion,
All these I openly lay bare before you.

I lift up my heart and rejoice in all positive potential
Of the buddhas and bodhisattvas in ten directions,
Of solitary realizers, hearers still training, and those beyond,
And of all ordinary beings.

You who are the bright lights of worlds in ten directions,
Who have attained a buddha's omniscience through the stages of awakening,
All you who are my guides,
Please turn the supreme wheel of Dharma.

With palms together I earnestly request:
You who may actualize parinirvana,
Please stay with us for eons numberless as atoms of the world,
For the happiness and well-being of all wanderers in samsara.

Whatever slight positive potential I may have created,
By paying homage, offering, and acknowledging my faults,
Rejoicing, and requesting that the buddhas stay and teach,
I now dedicate all this for full awakening.

May you buddhas now living in the worlds of ten directions,
And all you gone to freedom in the past, accept my offerings.
May those not yet arisen quickly perfect their minds,
Awakening as fully enlightened ones.

May all worlds in ten directions,
Be entirely pure and vast.
May they be filled with bodhisattvas
Surrounding buddhas gathered beneath a bodhi tree.

May as many beings as exist in ten directions
Be always well and happy.
May all samsaric beings live in accord with the Dharma,
And may their every Dharma wish be fulfilled.

Remembering my past lives in all varieties of existence,
May I practice the bodhisattva way,
And thus, in each cycle of death, migration, and birth,
May I always abandon the householder's life.

Then, following in the footsteps of all the buddhas,
And perfecting the practice of a bodhisattva,
May I always act without error or compromise,
With ethical discipline faultless and pure.

May I teach the Dharma in the language of gods,
In every language of spirits and nagas,
Of humans and of demons,
And in the voice of every form of being.

May I be gentle-minded, cultivating the six paramitas,
And never forget bodhichitta.
May I completely cleanse without omission
Every negativity and all that obscures this awakening mind.

May I traverse all my lives in the world,
Free of karma, afflictions, and interfering forces,
Just as the lotus blossom is undisturbed by the water's wave,
Just as the sun and moon move unhindered through the sky.

May I ease the suffering in the lower realms
And in the many directions and dimensions of the universe.
May I guide all wanderers in samsara to the pure bliss of awakening
And be of worldly benefit to them as well.

May I practice constantly for eons to come,
Perfecting the activities of awakening,
Acting in harmony with the various dispositions of beings,
Showing the ways of a bodhisattva.

May I always have the friendship
Of those whose path is like mine,
And with body, words, and also mind,
May we practice together the same aspirations and activities.

May I always meet a spiritual mentor
And never displease that excellent friend,
Who deeply wishes to help me
And expertly teaches the bodhisattva way.

May I always directly see the buddhas,
Masters encircled by bodhisattvas,
And without pause or discouragement for eons to come,
May I make extensive offerings to them.

May I hold within me the Buddha's genuine Dharma,
Illuminate everywhere the teachings that awaken,
Embody the realizations of a bodhisattva,
And practice ardently in all future eons.

While circling through all states of existence,
May I become an endless treasure of good qualities –
Skilful means, wisdom, samadhi, and liberating stabilizations –
Gathering limitless pristine wisdom and positive potential.

On one atom I shall see
Buddha fields numberless as atoms,
Inconceivable buddhas among bodhisattvas in every field,
Practicing the activities of awakening.

Perceiving this in all directions,
I dive into an ocean of buddha-fields,
Each an ocean of three times' buddhas in the space of a wisp of hair.
So I, too, will practice for an ocean of eons.

Thus, I am continually immersed in the speech of the buddhas,
Expression that reveals an ocean of qualities in one word,
The completely pure eloquence of all the buddhas,
Communication suited to the varied tendencies of beings.

With strength of understanding I plunge
Into the infinite enlightened speech of the Dharma
Of all buddhas in three times gone to freedom,
Who continually turn the wheel of Dharma methods.

I shall experience in one moment
Such vast activity of all future eons,
And I will enter into all eons of the three times,
In but a fraction of a second.

In one instant I shall see all those awakened beings,
Past, present, and future lions among humans,
And with the power of the illusion-like stabilization
I will constantly engage in their inconceivable activity.

I shall manifest upon one single atom
The array of pure lands present, past, and future.
Likewise, I shall enter the array of pure buddha-fields
In every direction without exception.

I shall enter the very presence of all my guides,
Those lights of this world who are yet to appear,
Those sequentially turning the wheels of complete awakening,
Those who reveal nirvana – final, perfect peace.

May I achieve the power of swift, magical emanation,
The power to lead to the great vehicle through every approach,
The power of always beneficial activity,
The power of love pervading all realms,

The power of all surpassing positive potential,
The power of supreme knowledge unobstructed by discrimination,
And through the powers of wisdom, skillful means, and samadhi,
May I achieve the perfect power of awakening.

Purifying the power of all contaminated actions,
Crushing the power of disturbing emotions at their root,
Defusing the power of interfering forces,
I shall perfect the power of the bodhisattva practice.

May I purify an ocean of worlds,
May I free an ocean of beings,
May I clearly see an ocean of Dharma,
May I realize an ocean of pristine wisdom.

May I purify an ocean of activities,
May I fulfill an ocean of aspirations,
May I make offerings to an ocean of buddhas,
May I practice without discouragement for an ocean of eons.

To awaken fully through this bodhisattva way,
I shall fulfill without exception
All the diverse aspirations of the awakening practice
Of all buddhas gone to freedom in the three times everywhere.

In order to practice exactly as the wise one
Called Samantabhadra, 'All-Embracing Good,'
The elder brother of the sons and daughters of the buddhas,
I completely dedicate all this goodness.

Likewise may I dedicate
Just as the skillful Samantabhadra,
With pure body, speech, and mind,
Pure actions and pure buddha-fields.

I shall give rise to the aspirations of Manjushri
For this bodhisattva practice of all-embracing good,
To perfect these practices
Without discouragement or pause in all future eons.

May my pure activities be endless,
My good qualities boundless,
And through abiding in immeasurable activity,
May I actualize infinite emanations.

Limitless is the end of space,
Likewise, limitless are living beings,
Thus, limitless are karma and afflictions.
May my aspiration's reach be limitless as well.

One may offer to the buddhas
All wealth and adornments of infinite worlds in ten directions,
And one may offer during eons numberless as atoms of the world
Even the greatest happiness of gods and humans;

But whoever hears this extraordinary aspiration
And, longing for highest awakening,
Gives rise to faith just once,
Creates far more precious positive potential.

Those who make this heartfelt aspiration for the bodhisattva way
Will be free of all lower rebirths,
Free of harmful companions,
And will quickly see Amitabha, Infinite Light.

And even in this very human life,
They will be nourished by happiness and have all conducive circumstances.
Without waiting long,
They will become like Samantabhadra himself.

Those who give voice to this extraordinary aspiration
Will quickly and completely purify
The five boundless harmful actions
Created under the power of ignorance.

Blessed with supreme knowledge,
Excellent body, family, attributes, and appearance,
They will be invincible to vast interfering forces and misleading
teachers,
And all the three worlds will make offerings.

Going quickly to the noble bodhi tree,
And sitting there to benefit sentient beings,
Subduing all interfering forces,
They will fully awaken and turn the great wheel of Dharma

Have no doubt that complete awakening
Is the fully ripened result – comprehended only by a buddha –
Of holding in mind by teaching, reading, or reciting
This aspiration of the bodhisattva practice.

In order to train just like
The hero Manjushri who knows reality as it is

And just like Samantabhadra as well,
I completely dedicate all this goodness, just as they did.

With that dedication which is praised as greatest
By all the buddhas gone to freedom in the three times,
I, too, dedicate all my roots of goodness
For the attainments of the bodhisattva practice.

When the moment of my death arrives,
By eliminating all obscurations
And directly perceiving Amitabha,
May I go immediately to Sukhavati, Pure Land of Great Joy.

Having gone to Sukhavati,
May I actualize the meaning of these aspirations,
Fulfilling them all without exception,
For the benefit of beings for as long as this world endures.

Born from an extremely beautiful, superlative lotus
In this joyful land, the Buddha's magnificent mandala,
May I receive a prediction of my awakening
Directly from the Buddha Amitabha.

Having received a prediction there,
May I create vast benefit
For beings throughout the ten directions,
With a billion emanations by the power of wisdom.

Through even the small virtue I have accumulated
By offering this prayer of the bodhisattva practice,
May all the positive aspirations of beings
Be fulfilled in an instant.

Through creating limitless positive potential
By dedicating this prayer of Samantabhadra's deeds,

May all beings drowning in this torrent of suffering,
Enter the presence of Amitabha.

Through this king of aspirations, which is the greatest of the sublime,
Helping infinite wanderers in samsara,
Through the accomplishment of this scripture dazzling with Samantabhadra's practice,
May suffering realms be utterly emptied of all beings.
