Because of the infallibility of Arya Buddha's proclamation that the power and blessings of the Medicine Buddhas are greater and swifter in degenerate times, we accept it. Having already made preparations as described in the sutra ritual, one who wishes to perform this quintessential ritual for invoking the heart commitment of the protectors, the seven sugatas, during degenerate times, should recite as follows, fully infusing the mind with refuge and bodhichitta:

So I might perform good works.

Due to the merits accumulated over the three times by myself and all the buddhas and bodhisattvas, which are empty from their own side, may the I, who is empty from its own side, achieve the state of enlightenment, which is empty from its own side, and lead all sentient beings, who are empty from their own side, to that state as quickly as possible by myself alone.

Because of all the merits of the three times created by me and all the buddhas, bodhisattvas, and other sentient beings, may there be no wars, famines, disease, quarreling, fighting, or unhappy minds; may there be great prosperity, and may everything needed be easily obtained. May all the human beings in the world be guided by spiritual leaders teaching only Dharma, and may everyone enjoy the happiness of Dharma.

Notes Regarding This Practice

Altar and Gompa Set-up

When performing this puja extensively, it is best to set out 108 sets of offering bowls. If this is not possible, then 8 sets will suffice. The offerings for this puja are set out in a unique fashion: Starting toward the back of the altar and working forward, one places a row of 8 argham, followed by a row of 8 padhyam, then 8 pushpe, and so on, rather than consecutive rows of all 8 offerings.

One should also prepare and offer 8 tormas made from the 3 whites and the 3 sweets (milk, butter, yoghurt, sugar, molasses, and honey) in the shape of tear drops. Other offerings of food, flowers, etc. are optional.

It is recommended by Lama Zopa Rinpoche to also have on the altar, if possible, a representation of the Medicine Buddha mandala (obtainable from FPMT Education Department) in a mandala house and above that, a copy of the Medicine Buddha Sutra wrapped in five-colored cloth.

NOTE: When seating monks and nuns in the front, it is customary to seat monks on the left side of the throne (when facing the throne) and nuns on the right.

During "big pujas" (these are defined as self-initiations or long pujas and pujas with extensive offerings, etc.) one can offer a stick of incense for the lama or geshe to hold during the verses of invocation.

Ritual Implements

One should have both dorje and bell, but no damaru or inner offering.

NOTE: Throughout the preceding text, small symbols of bells  or other instruments and hand mudras appear in the margins to help the practitioner know when one should play these instruments or when to do certain mudras. It is hoped that these small indications will be helpful to those not yet familiar with these aspects of tantric practice. Other symbols and their meanings are:  lotus mudra  prostration mudra  show the dorje

Practice Tips

Because this is a practice belonging to Action Tantra, it is best not to eat black foods the day one performs the puja. After the puja, one can eat whatever one wishes, but before doing the puja, avoid black foods.

According to the instructions of Lama Zopa Rinpoche, before commencing the actual practice, begin with preliminary prayers (found in the "Preliminary Prayers" section of Essential Buddhist Prayers, Vol. 1), including prostrations with Confession of Downfalls to the Thirty-Five Buddhas and the General Confession prayer.

Endnotes:

1. Additions to the original text from the instructions of Lama Zopa Rinpoche.
2. Lama Zopa Rinpoche advises to meditate on extensive offering in this and similar places in the puja. One can do the extensive offering practice found on p.45, or once one is familiar with the practice, one may just meditate on extensive offering oneself.
3. Lama Zopa Rinpoche also advises that it is extremely beneficial to rejoice. During the puja, rotate your rejoicing meditation in the following way: During the first seven-limb verse, rejoice in your own merit – all the merit you have accumulated in the past (resulting in this precious human rebirth), present (following your teacher's advice, serving others, etc.), and that you will accumulate in the future, all the way until enlightenment. Think, "How wonderful, how precious." In the next sevenlimb verse, rejoice in the merit of others – all the wonderful things they have done, their qualities, etc., thinking, ""How wonderful, how precious." In the next sevenlimb verse, rejoice in the deeds of the buddhas and bodhisattvas, including your own teachers and the lineage lamas. Remember the hardships they endured to practice and preseve the Dharma, and how many countless beings they have benefitted, thinking, "How wonderful, how precious." In the next seven-limb verse, return to rejoicing in one's own merit and qualities, then that of others, and so on.

Extensive Offering Practice

Think that you have received these offerings through the kindness of all sentient beings. Make charity of the offerings to all the hell beings, pretas, animals, humans, asuras, and suras. Think that you and all other beings are going to make offerings to the Buddhas together. Generate great happiness that you are accumulating infinite merit by thinking in this way.

Make offerings to all holy objects, visualizing them as manifestations of your own root guru, who is one with all other virtuous friends. Since the virtuous friend is the most powerful object in the merit field, by offering like this, you accumulate the most extensive merit. In his text, THE FIVE STAGES, the savior Nagarjuna said, “Abandon making other offerings; try purely to make offerings only to your guru. By pleasing your guru, you will achieve the sublime wisdom of the omniscient mind.”

Place your hands in prostration mudra at your heart. Each time you make offerings, think that you are prostrating, making offerings, and that the guru’s holy mind experiences great bliss.

Actual Practice

First, we make offerings to all the holy objects here in this place, every single thangka, statue, stupa, scripture, picture, tsa tsa, relic, and prayer wheel, by seeing them as inseparable from our own virtuous friend, who is one with all other virtuous friends. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

Then, we make all these offerings both real and visualized to every single holy object in this country – all the statues, stupas, scriptures, pictures, all the centers' altars, every single altar in peoples' homes, the prayer wheels, tsa tsas, and any virtuous friend in this country, by seeing them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We present these offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

Then, we make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to every single holy object in India, including the Bodhgaya stupa where 1,000 buddhas descended, also we make offerings to all the holy beings in India, including His Holiness the Dalai Lama and other virtuous friends that you have there. By seeing them as inseparable from one's own virtuous friend, we make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to every single holy object in Tibet, including the Jowo Rinpoche in Lhasa that was blessed by Guru Shakyamuni Buddha Himself, by seeing them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We present these offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to every single holy object in Nepal, including Bouddhanath Stupa and Swayambhunath Stupa and any virtuous friends in Nepal. By seeing them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend, we make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to every single holy object in the other Buddhist countries such as mainland China, Thailand, Taiwan, Burma, etc., by seeing all the holy objects as inseparable from one's own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We now make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to every single holy object in the rest of the world, by seeing all the holy objects as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings both real and visualized to all the ten direction Buddha, Dharma, Sangha by seeing all of them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to all the ten direction statues, stupas, and scriptures by seeing them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to Buddha Chenrezig, by seeing Chenrezig as inseparable from His Holiness the Dalai Lama and ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

We make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to the seven Medicine Buddhas (which is the same as making offerings to all the buddhas) by seeing them as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

Then, we make all these offerings, both real and visualized, to the bodhisattva Kshitigarbha by seeing him as inseparable from ones own virtuous friend. We make the offerings many times and in this way generate great bliss in all the holy minds. (Prostrate, offer, and generate great bliss.)

Appendix 3

Meditation on Rejoicing

You can rotate your meditation on rejoicing during the puja in the following way: At the appropriate time during the first seven-limb verse, rejoice in the goodness of yourself. The next time the seven-limb prayer is recited, pause and focus your rejoicing on the goodness of others. The next time, rejoice in the goodness of all gurus, buddhas, and bodhisattvas. Then start again with yourself, etc. For the final seven-limb verse, rejoice in the goodness of all.

Actual Practice

Self: First, rejoice in all of the good things you yourself have done in the past. Think of what you must have done in past lives to result in this precious human life today: practicing generosity, morality, patience, and making stainless pure prayers. Every good thing you experience now is the result of past positive actions you have done. As you are reflecting on the good things you must have done in the past, rejoice by reciting to yourself like a mantra “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

Rejoice in all the good things, sincere prayers, practices, helping others, following your teacher’s advice, etc. that you are doing in this present life thinking, “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

Then, rejoice in all the virtuous activities you will do in the future, all the realizations on the path you will develop and all the ways you will help others, teach the Dharma, etc. thinking, “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

Others: Now, think of all the wonderful things others have done, all their virtuous qualities and the ways people have helped one another in the past, are helping each other now, and will do so in the future, especially all of your companions in the spiritual life, thinking “how wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” Think also of particular qualities that others have such as generosity, intelligence, beauty, fame, wealth, devotion, etc., thinking “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

Think about the life stories of the various saints of all the different religious traditions and how they benefited others through devoting their lives to spiritual practice and service. Rejoice in their qualities and deeds thinking, “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

Buddhas and bodhisattvas: Continue by thinking specifically of all the incredible things that have been done in the past, are being done now, and will be done in the future by all the buddhas and bodhisattvas, including your own teachers and the lineage lamas. Remember their qualities, their life stories, the hardships they bore to generate realizations in their minds and preserve the dharma, and how they have helped countless living beings thinking, “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)

All: Now, allow your mind to be completely aware of, and rejoice in, all the wonderful things that yourself, others, and all buddhas and bodhisattvas have done, are doing, and will do from now until all beings reach enlightenment. Feel expansive and happy for yourself and others thinking, “How wonderful it is, how wonderful it is.” (Pause)
