Benefits of the Mantra of Great Wisdom

If any very wise son and daughter of the type memorizes the words of the mantra, keeps it, recites it, or tries to understand it, then devas or devis; or nagas male or female; or nojin (male) or nojinmo (female); or asuras or female asuras; or floating in the sky males or floating in the sky females; or miamchi or female miamchi (eight worldly gods); or great bearing stomach (female) or great bearing stomach (male); or smell eaters or female smell eaters; or bhutas (jungpo) or female bhutas (jungpo); or drulbum or female drulbum; or flesh eaters or female flesh eaters; or sharks or female sharks; or jeche (forgetting ones) or female jeche; or cannibals or female cannibals; or thramen male or thramen female; or spirits taking away color male and female ones; or lusulpo or female lusulop; or human beings or nonhuman beings; so all of those beings can't give harm.

Reciting these words of secret mantra is the same as reciting the whole of the Arya Lankavatara Sutra. These are the words of secret mantra that the Bhagavan taught to repel the cannibals and other malevolent beings.
