Opportunity to Serve as Centre Director at CKSL, Bangalore (INDIA)

Choe Khor Sum Ling (CKSL) is inviting applications for a new centre Director. This is currently a purely volunteer position.

Choe Khor Sum Ling (CKSL) is a FPMT center for the study and practice of Buddhist meditation and philosophy as taught by the masters of ancient Nalanda University. The CKSL Board is looking for a suitable new centre Director who can join our team very soon.

Applicant Qualifications

- Respect for His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama, Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche and the Buddha Dharma.
- Experience being a director or core volunteer at other FPMT centre/s or may have led business teams in corporate firms and companies.
- Should be residing in Bangalore- preferably close to the center.
- Should be a team player, have good organizational capabilities, ability to effectively delegate work, good communication skills, effective people management capabilities and proficient in English language.
- Kind to all beings, polite, honest, truthful.
- Have a management style that is inclusive, patient, wise and consultative.
- Willingness to offer service as CKSL Director for minimum 2 years.
- Some amount of familiarity with Mahayana Buddhism, FPMT, FPMT projects, services, and activities.
- Should be willing to offer 5-10 hours of volunteering time per week.
- Foreign nationals already holding an India employment VISA, Student VISA or Volunteer VISA qualify to apply.
- Foreign nationals with OCI (Overseas Citizen of India) status qualify to apply.

Role Functions

The CKSL centre director role will include:

- Implement activities necessary to attain the goals for the center, project or service as agreed with the center's board, and in line with FPMT policy and guidelines.
- Delegate tasks and responsibilities to the volunteering team/s.
- Supervise volunteering team/s, call regular meetings, and provide feedbacks.
- Responsibly guide, develop, and direct the affairs of the centre towards the fulfillment of the centre goals, in alignment with the FPMT Five Pillars of Service, while maintaining the greatest possible harmony within the centre, under the guidance of the centre's board of directors.
- Manage and support the Spiritual Program Coordinator in creating a robust calendar of teachings, meditation, practices, and retreats in line with FPMT standard education programs.
