

FPMT Foundation Store Policy Regarding Dharma Items

Dharma Items

Dharma items in The Foundation Store are made available for Dharma practice and educational purposes, and never for the purpose of profiting from their sale.

Therefore, we do not provide these Dharma items in an ordinary way, thinking of them as goods to be bought and sold. Rather, we make them available with the wish to benefit others and gratefully accept money offerings in return.

Generosity-Based Offerings: We have made a large number of our digital items available on a generosity-based model starting at $0.

Minimum Offering Amounts: For some items, we have listed a minimum offering amount. This minimum offering amount is necessary to cover the costs incurred producing or importing these items.

All offering proceeds received are carefully calculated and categorized to ensure that any proceeds from Dharma items are used for making more Dharma available and to further the charitable mission and projects of FPMT, Inc. We carefully follow Buddhist principles for the use of this money. This money is not used for staff salaries or food expenses.

How to Think While Obtaining Dharma Items

We encourage you to refrain from thinking that you are “purchasing” any Dharma items. Instead, we encourage you to think that you are making an offering to a Dharma organization and to generate an attitude of devotion and the wish to benefit sentient beings. In addition, we encourage you to think that the buddhas, in the aspect of Dharma items, come to you as an expression of thanksgiving and to support your practice. This is the most skillful way to obtain Dharma items and avoids the downfall of considering Dharma items in an ordinary way.

Our Dharma Item Generosity Policy

The Foundation Store exists solely to make Dharma items available to students around the world to further the charitable mission and projects of FPMT, Inc. If you are unable to offer the amount suggested for FPMT digital materials or online programs, we will happily work with you to find a solution. Please contact us at shipping@fpmt.org.

Dharma items ordered through the FPMT online store are not tax deductible under US law.
