One of Tibet's Principal Monastery Striving to Preserve Tibetan Buddhist Tradition & Cultural Heritage in Exile

Special Haya-griva Puja Ceremony in dedication to Sera Je Food Fund program

Sera Jey Monastery is profoundly indebted to all its benefactors, friends, devotees & the human society at large; and in gratitude offer prayer dedications during all our daily prayer sessions.

Besides, the monastery is immensely indebted to offer our devout prayers & ritual ceremonies for all the sponsors & supporters of Sera Je Food Fund program, its founder - the ever compassionate Lama Zopa Rinpoche & his esteem FPMT (Foundation for the Preservation of Mahayana Tradition).

Thus the monastery with much honour, is conducting a special & extensive five day Haya-griva Puja Ceremony by a full assembly attended by entire sanga member, from 17 - 20 October 2011. It is devotedly dedicated for:

- all benefactors / sponsors of Sera Je Food Fund program. For accumulation of good merits for their (them & their families) happiness, wellbeing & success.
- good recovery of Lama Zopa Rinpoche's health, success in resumption of his teachings and that his spiritual mission attain greater heights & benefit wider.
- Wellbeing & success of FPMT members, sanga community, students & devotee community; and that FPMT succeed in all its spiritual activities & its mission benefit the entire human community.

The sanga community of Sera Jey Monastery will observe this special Haya-griva Puja ceremony with much veneration & devotion for accomplishment of its above dedication.
