

MOST IMPORTANT FOR SUCCESS

Rinpoche gave this advice during the FPMT Inc Board meeting in Portland in October 2006 - this is VERY important advice for all FPMT centers and students:

"The most important thing for success is devotion and compassion - this is the cause for harmony. That's the best puja. Compassion for others cuts down on problems, and people will help you.

Devotion collects so much merit, good samaya leads to inner and outer prosperity coming; and with the wisdom to discriminate what is right, everything comes."
