

A desperate request for the quick return of Kyabje Zopa Rinpoché

Lama you know! Lama you know!
I beg you to listen to me gentle root Lama!
I appeal to you with a sudden desperate request.
Do not deprive us of your compassionate refuge.
Lama you are the blessings of the Buddhas of the three times.
Even though you are now in the great pervasive bliss
Of the unobstructed sphere of clear light it is now that we need your great compassion:
quickly emanate the supreme body of the transcendental wisdom emanation from the various emanations of the dance of the great compassion of the supreme mind.
Arise! Rise! Return from the sphere of the Dharmakaya!
I invoke you! I invoke you! I invoke You for the sake of beings, do not remain in the pure land of dakini and other pure lands, please return at once to make the scriptural and realization teachings flourish for the sentient beings of the world to the south.
Come back right away because the desperate beings are kind and are desperately calling you.
They want to see you, they want to be blessed in body, speech and mind.
We are the sentient beings hallucinated and confused by the conception of ignorance: in the sphere of the luminous emptiness of the three supreme bodies we confess the samayas that we have degenerated
Let there be the auspiciousness of emptiness and compassion, the supreme auspiciousness of all auspiciousness!
Let there be the auspiciousness of the quick meeting of the disciple and the lama.
By the power of the truth of unchanging reality may the perfect reincarnation quickly appear.
I, the dakini with pure faith, in sorrow and weeping in despair, due to the blessings of the three roots, may the wishes of this beggar be fulfilled.
Object, subject and action in the sphere of the reality of luminosity and bliss. A!

On the special day of the Dakini, in a state of great distress, these prayers came to Yogini Khadro Tserigma.
